Superintendent

Kevin P. Braga
Assistant Superintendent / Principal

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your appointment as a Youth Delegate in the 2023 Stone Soup Leadership Institute! You were selected from a talented pool of applicants because of your commitment to excellence in the classroom and on campus, and your embodiment of the school motto, "What is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

We hope that this partnership with the Stone Soup Leadership Institute will help you discover your voice, develop your goals, and cultivate the 21st century skills needed to become agents of change in building a more sustainable world. As you embark on this journey, we encourage you to engage fully, take risks and go beyond your comfort zone so that you may realize your full potential as emerging leaders.

We have the utmost confidence that you will represent Bristol County Agricultural High School responsibly and conscientiously in this new role as a Youth Delegate, and that you will embrace this opportunity to collaborate with community leaders, businesses, and international partners to envision a more sustainable future for your generation.

We wish you the best in this new endeavor!

Sincerely,

Derek Costa
